2022 Terms & Conditions

Show Procedures and Requirements

- Originality and Quality: All work must be original and handmade. Commercially purchased and imported items are not accepted.
- All crafters must obtain all state and local tax permits necessary for your operation.
- All crafters must provide their own booth/display pieces complimentary to your craft; some tables are available (see application to reserve).

Contract Conditions

1. Crafter agrees to sell only original, handmade arts and crafts. Commercially purchased and import items are not allowed. Crafter agrees to sell their own items and agrees not to sell or represent another person's items.
2. Crafter agrees that the work accepted for the show must be representative of the work described in the application.
3. No smoking will be allowed in the building.
4. All extra inventories must be placed out of sight.
5. Crafter shall be liable for delivery, setting up and removal of his or her own exhibit and inventory within the time requirements listed.
6. Crafter will be required to have any and all business licenses needed for his/her operation.
7. All pertinent fire codes, laws, ordinances and regulations pertaining to health, fire protection, and public safety shall be strictly obeyed.
8. Crafter agrees that the management shall be held blameless and not financially liable for any personal injury to the crafter, or his helpers. The management is not liable for any merchandise or property stolen or damaged in any way. The crafter assumes all such responsibility, as every precaution will be taken and security provided.
9. The management will not be liable for refunds or any other liabilities whatsoever for the failure to fulfill this contract due to reasons of the enclosure in which the show is to be produced being, before or during the show, destroyed by fire or other calamity, or by any act of God, public enemy, strikes, statutes, ordinances, or any legal authority, or any other cause beyond the managements control.
- 10. Crafters agree to be set-up and ready to open by 9:00am and not to gather and collect their inventory and/or tear down any part of their display, tables, booths, etc, until after the designated pick-up time at the end of the Show, or until all the customers are out of the building.
11. Crafters selling food items agree to package, sell and sample according to Washington State, County, City and Federal regulations. Crafter assumes all responsibilities.
12. Crafters are responsible for collecting moneys for their own crafts at their own booths and are expected to have sufficient change to do so. Crafters are responsible for any and all local and state taxes due on their sales.
13. The management retains the right to revoke the participation rights of any exhibitor if these conditions of the Show are violated at any time, without refund.
14. Cancellations prior to October 15 will receive refunds. Cancellations after October 15 are NON-REFUNDABLE.
